

WAPDA is a state chapter of the National Private Duty Association (NPDA).

For information on NPDA membership visit www.privatedutyhomecare.org or send an e-mail to info@npda.org

The Washington Private Duty Association (WAPDA) was formed to advance the field of private duty home care in Washington State and support member agencies. Our vision is to be the recognized voice for private duty home care in Washington.

Join WAPDA

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Each member agency is committed to improving the quality of their agency by upholding high standards of practice, conducting business in an ethical manner, and supporting their employees. We believe that by coming together we can educate the public and governmental agencies about private duty home care and improve the quality of our individual agencies through education and best practices.

As a WAPDA member you can...

- Be part of the only statewide organization dedicated to the needs of the private duty industry
- Receive our newsletter with regular features on regulatory requirements, best practices, member agency news, and more
- Network with other Washington private duty agencies
- Improve your business by learning from those who understand what you do – and have done it successfully
- Market your agency as a WAPDA member
- Stay current on new state laws and regulations that could affect your agency
- Participate in the annual conference at a reduced rate

Dues: $250/year

Membership applications are available from the WAPDA website: www.wapda.org

For more information, e-mail: membership@wapda.org

NPDA

National Private Duty Association

The Voice of Private Duty Home Care

A Strong Unified Industry Voice

The National Private Duty Association (NPDA) is the nation's first association for providers of private duty home care, which includes non-medical home care services. The Washington Private Duty Association is an NPDA state chapter.

